

Table 1: Preceptor Responses to Knowledge and Skill Change

Preceptor	Comments
One	“I will be able to release the student to complete tasks for the new physician in the practice, while I continue to support the senior physician. This will reduce my administrative burden.”
Two	“Focus more on a detailed timeline for daily schedules for the students.”
Three	“I will appropriately track the students’ activities and weekly objectives to ensure appropriate learning and advancement through their schooling and class.”
